

Grandparent's Day, 2017.

Grandparents hold a special place in everyone's heart. Indraprastha Global School lay emphasis on the emotional bonding of children with their family members hence a special day was organized to strengthen their unique bond between kids and their grandparents. In honour of the grandparents the Mont students of IPGS celebrated Grandparent's Day on 23 rd. September 2017.

On the occasion children, in their own special way, thanked the grandparents for their love and support. The celebration commenced with the auspicious 'lighting of the lamp' and Ganesh Vandana', followed by welcome song, rhyme recitation through which they displayed their love and gratitude towards their elders. Students presented a dance drama on the theme of spreading love and harmony in our society. The main idea highlighted through the performances was the appreciation of values, motivation and inspiration that children draw from their grandparents. The grandparents were overjoyed to witness the little ones rhythmic dance performances.

Shri B.S Phartyal, graced the event by being the chief guest. He joined SashtraSeemaBal as Assistant Central Intelligence Officer and was retired as an officiating Commandant of SSB Wireless and Information Technology Training Centre, Shimla. He appreciated the efforts of the faculty who trained the toddlers to present such a beautiful programme and congratulated the school for its vision to transform its students to a better human being and a responsible citizen.

The event was a great success and it concluded with the blessings of all the grandparents and elders present. The programme suffused a wave of love, affection, and respect among students for their grandparents. At the end, creative handouts made by the kids were gifted to the grandparents to take with them as memoirs.
